REPORT CALF VACCINATION RESUMED IN STARLAND MUNICIPAL DISTRICT

By H. F. IRWIN

Calfhood vaccination has been resumed in Starland since the roads have improved.

The objective set for the veterinarian is a township a day, the itinerary being arranged by Captains in each township. In order that the veterinarian may cover a township a day it is necessary that all calves for vaccination be separated into a stall or convenient pen so that vaccination may be done without loss of time.

A few owners are causing inconvenience by not being ready. The lack of co-operation of a few is causing inconveniences to the many at whose request by petition this Brucellosis Restricted Area was established.

In those instances where the calves are not available after notification to be held in readiness, it is within the right and authority of the veterinarian to place all cattle under quarantine. This would prevent moving the cattle to or from the farm until the regulations have been complied with. Under quarantine, vaccination will not be done at the regular price, but at the full charge for the veterinarian's mileage and professional services, as for a private call, collectable under the Agricultural Service Board Act.

Vaccination has been arranged for, and has been completed in several of the townships farthest from the veterinarian's headquarters, to take advantage of the longer days in completing the remotest communities. If the weather will continue favorable it will not take long to finish the whole area.

The co-operation of the majority who are whole-heartedly contributing to the success of the vaccination program is greatly appreciated by all concerned with carrying out the regulations.

School Teachers Hold Conference

BEISEKER—The Beiseker and Kathryn sub-locals of ATA met in Kathryn on Wednesday, Oct. 25. During a lively business discussion it was decided to try a few workshop-type meetings. The subject for the first meeting will be the new science course for the Junior High School.

Mr. Len Workman, principal of the Kathryn School, gave an interesting account of the new County Act, which became law July 1st, 1950. After careful study of the Act, it was the unanimous opinion of the assembled teachers that the following sections require revision:

Sec. 2 (a) "Minister" means the "minister of municipal affairs." This makes the board of education responsible to the minister of municipal affairs rather than the minister of education.

Sec. II. "The chairman of the county council shall be vested with all the rights, duties, privileges and powers of the chairman of the board of trustees of a school division."

Sec. 15. "The school committee (which has been appointed from members of the county council) may co-opt the services of not more than three electors, who are willing to act as members of the committee."

Thus the school committee is composed of some members who are not responsible to the electors.

Sec. 20 (I) "The . . . school committee . . . shall have the duties and powers that are exercised by a board under . . . The School Act . . . except the powers—

- (1) to borrow money;
- (2) to pass a by-law;
- (3) to do such other things as may be reserved from time to time to the county council by by-law."

Thus the already "irresponsible" education committee is further hand-cuffed to the county council. It cannot borrow money; it cannot pass a by-law; all or any of its powers can be taken away through a by-law passed by the county council.

Sec. 21 (2). "The county council shall consider and review the estimates (of educational committee) and may reduce or increase the estimates or may reduce or increase the estimates or may return the estimates for revision."

Thus the education committee loses its fiscal independence and becomes completely subservient to the county council.

It was further noted by the teachers that Alberta, one of the richest provinces, pays the lowest overall percentage of the cost of education of any province in the Dominion of Canada. The provinces range from Newfoundland, which pays 99 percent of the cost of education, down to Alberta, which pays only 30 percent. Quebec, long considered slow in educational reform, pays 55 percent

Honor Veterans of Two Wars

Veterans of two World Wars will be honored November 11 when Canada bows its head in remembrance of those who fought for their native land, and of those who gave their lives. The poppy is the symbol of that day. In conjunction with Remembrance Day, the Canadian Legion is selling poppy tags to raise funds for disabled veterans.

MADDEN MURMURS

Mr. and Mrs. H. Baxter spent the weekend at Nobleford, visiting the former's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Les Baxter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Walsh motorized to Whisky Gap to attend the wedding of Mrs. Walsh's niece, Miss Jaleena Godlonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Reg Giles moved to Calgary Nov. 1.

The Madden Ladies Club met at the home of Mrs. Clayholt on Wednesday, November 1. The usual business procedure was followed and a social afternoon with a nice lunch was enjoyed.

Mr. Wm. Keil accompanied a hunting party from Dog Pound and Botrel to a vicinity west of Sundry.

of the cost of education. It seemed to the teachers that the answer to the problem of the rising mill rate in Alberta is to demand that the government accept its rightful share of the cost of education and leave education democratic and free—as it must be.

The guest speaker at the next meeting, which is to be held in Kathryn, Nov. 15, is to be Mr. John Bracco from Strathmore.

Shorter Hours At Beiseker Stores On Wednesday

BEISEKER.—The Beiseker storekeepers would like to inform their many customers that starting Wednesday, November 1st, their stores will open at 9 a.m. instead of 8 a.m. and on Wednesdays will close at 12 instead of 1 p.m. This change will be for the winter season.

LEVEL LAND TOPICS

Miss Della Huether, who is taking a nurse's aid course at the Technical school in Calgary was visiting with her parents over the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Huether.

Harvey Bechthold and Reg Huether from the Col. Belcher hospital in Calgary were weekend visitors in the district.

The Rosebud Dorcas Society gathered on Nov. 5 in the church basement. They finished another warm woolen quilt, also other work was done.

Mr. and Mrs. Levern Krenzler of Calgary were weekend visitors in this district.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Black of Montana are visiting with Mrs. Black's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Huether.

Level Land school had "open house" on Wednesday, November 1. The students had their achievements on display. Some of the achievements were wood burning, embroidery work, chalked in pictures and numerous other articles. Over a hundred parents, friends and students were served with lunch at the close of the day.

Adeline Bereth and Pearl Pearson of Canadian Union College were weekend visitors in the Level Land district.

Four cars started out on Saturday afternoon to Drumheller for their last drive on the Visitation Day for this year. One of the cars driven and owned by Marvin Olke had the misfortune of hitting a stone which put a hole into the crank case and drained the oil. It occurred about 15 miles west of Drumheller where the road is now under construction.

TURKEYS NOT VICTIMS

BEISEKER.—Mrs. Leo Thurn was pleasantly surprised last week, after having been disheartened for some time over the loss of several of her turkeys, which she believed had fallen victims to coyotes.

However, to her surprise she not only found her turkeys, but noted that the mother turkey had stolen away, and at this time was hatching her brood, with seven already hatched.

It looks as if there will be young turkeys for next Easter instead of Christmas!

Have We Forgotten?

This Saturday, November 11, a sober day in the Canadian year. For it is Remembrance Day, when we pause to honor those who fought and those who died in defence of our land in two bloody World Wars.

On this Remembrance Day we can perhaps ask, "Have we forgotten?"

Have we forgotten the awful price that thousands of our best men paid in giving their lives in order that we may live? Have we forgotten to repay those who came through those wars alive? Have we forgotten the awful havoc of war itself?

There was a time when the answer to these questions might almost have been "yes." But not today.

A stirring awaking Canada sincerely remembers and honors those who died. And through welfare legislation, our governments are slowly doing their best to honor those dead by caring for the living who cannot care for themselves.

A brave, new Canada is standing firm against the threat of another war. It isn't looking for war outside its borders, but is strongly on guard against such a visitation within our land.

And so we say, on this Remembrance Day, "Honor the dead. They deserve it. Respect the living. They need it."

Heat, War and Beauty

By T. W. PUE

The late October heat wave which swept across the United States 10 days ago brought mid-summer temperatures to Manitoba. I know, because I was there the last Sunday in October. Everyone was seen walking with topcoats carried instead of being worn and motorists could be seen driving in their shirt sleeves.

This unseasonal heat wave, which also brought the highest November temperatures to the Maritimes, with 65° above at Charlottetown on Sunday, Nov. 5, is explained by the presence of westerly winds, well north of their normal position, which cut off cold polar air and let in the warm, tropical air from the Pacific and the Gulf of Mexico.

This is the official Weather Bureau explanation but one should remember that our weather moves in waves. In the winter, we speak of cold waves and in the summer of heat waves. Both are of the same pattern. The emphasis is that of man's.

There are many things that we do not understand about weather and climate, but, in general, these seem to be some foundation for the belief that the nation has experienced warmer weather than usual during the past few years. This is not discovered by comparing temperatures on the same day of the year, but by average temperatures over a considerable space of time. How long the warm cycle will last is problematical and whether it is to be reversed by a cycle of cold years, remains obscured to human intelligence.

The geologists tell us that the North American continent had its Ice Age many centuries ago but nobody is able to say with definiteness exactly what the course of our climate has been. Neither is man able to accurately predict what is in store for the continent some hundreds or thousands of years from today. Speculation is interesting but the problem is not one to daunt us at the present time.

An increase of a fraction of a degree each year for 50 years would make desert wastes of Texas and Oklahoma and make central Alberta an orchard area. Wheat would be grown in fields north of McMurray and millions of people would be moving into the North West Territories.

Ho hum—it's 15° above this morning, Nov. 6. And I've known it to be colder than that in Alberta in November.

War in Korea

Milder climates 50 years hence won't help the Canadian special force moving over to Korea now. Latest forecasts of this war, now that the Chinese Communists are sending arms in to fight the U.N. forces are that the war could last all winter. And Korea isn't like Bermuda or Hawaii—they actually get snow and cold there.

I saw scores of the boys in uniform with their special U.N. shoulder patch on the trip to Manitoba. The Army is sending them all home for four days' pre-embarkation leave. One young veteran of World War II told me that they signed up to see action, and that if it should be announced that the special force would not be sent to Korea, half the force would go A.W.O.L. in protest.

Hint To the Smart Girls

We are getting a little fed up on the pictures of beauties, half-clad, as they prance around for a chance to be called a "beauty queen," posing before picture cameras of U.S. periodicals.

The contest idea has been worked overtime so far as feminine shapeliness is concerned and some of the contestants seem to be ready for anything so long as it is called a "contest" with a prize attached, to be awarded for pulchritude.

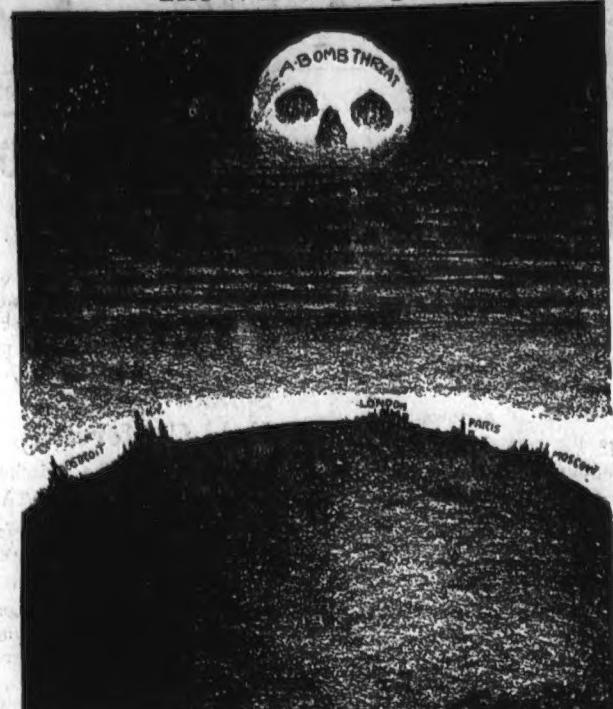

The obvious explanation is that the American public is girl conscious (and judging by all the girlie books on the newsstands in Edmonton) some Canadians are, too. Just the same, it is about time for some smart Canadians girls to figure out a publicity stunt that calls for more beauty and less nudity than their American sisters display.

Scriptural Meditations

By AINSLEY BLAIR

"If Christians would associate together, speaking to each other of the love of God, and of the precious truths of redemption, their own hearts would be refreshed, and they would refresh one another. We may be daily learning more of our heavenly Father, gaining a fresh experience of His grace; then we shall desire to speak of His love; and as we do this, our own hearts will be warmed and encouraged. If we thought and talked more of Jesus, and less of self, we should have far more of His presence."

She turned out to be stronger than I was and I wound up being the one paddled. Worse yet, now that she's found that out, she settles all arguments by using her hair brush on me. Technocracy:

Dear Sir,—Your headline of your story, "Alberta Technocrats May Disband Organization Here," is misleading and has no basis in fact. Mr. Argyle's reference to the closing of Technocracy's offices in Edmonton must be merely a surprise on his own part.

However, he did give a good outline of Technocracy as far as he went.

If the people of Edmonton and North America allow Technocracy to fold, then they will have reached a new and disastrous low, for, as Encyclopedia Americana states, "Whatever the future of Technocracy, it is the only program of social and economic re-construction which is in complete, intellectual and technical accord with the age in which we live."

It is a plan of operation for the continent of North America and can be adopted overnight by the governments in power—at any time that a sufficient number of the population demand it. The organization has no assumption of power but merely seeks to educate the intelligent minority capable of grasping a new idea. It is not a popular organization simply because it makes no emotional appeal.

With living costs soaring at the present rate, Technocracy should not have too long to wait. In the meantime Technocrats are still active in Alberta.

COMMENT FROM THE PRESSPity the Plight Of Gadsby

(From Toronto Globe & Mail)

The little Southern Alberta town of Gadsby is in a mighty bad way, according to Dan Wood, rancher, now en route to England. Dan puts the ranch centre's plight on a statistical basis: three-fourths of the male population wants to get married but can't, owing to the shortage of women. What the numerical deficit of women in the population is he doesn't reveal. But it's clear enough that any community, big or little, which can provide only one-quarter of the required number of brides is approaching extinction.

Could it be that the name "Gadsby" is not attractive to the feminine ear and that women shun it to locate where place names are more suggestive of romance and living happily ever after? If Gadsby is doomed to disappear for lack of progeny anyway, why not try changing the name to Elysium, Dreamville—or even Pandoratown? The post office list shows even fancier names than these scattered across the western plains, and they may be magnets to the fair. Look at the names of perfumes they buy.

It's worth a try, especially as all the lonesome bachelors cannot follow the example of Dan Wood, who is crossing the Atlantic to find a woman in Cumberland who will do his cooking for him.

Note and Comment

A glut of potatoes broke the Alberta market, the price going down to $20 a ton last week. That figures out at a cent a pound.

The federal bureau of statistics states that farm costs reached an index figure of 201.5 last August, which is double the base figure prevailing from 1935 to 1939.

During 1949 Canadians spent $3,012,000,000 for food. This is a record figure and compares to $2,700,000,000 spent the year before. Canadians spend more for food than any other item.

New Highway Will Open Alberta's Last Frontier

Alberta's pace-setting development is on the verge of creating a new host of boom towns—this time in the Lac Ste. Anne district northwest of Edmonton—with the announcement that a new road link with the Alaska highway will be undertaken 'immediately'.

The new link will open up the heretofore unsettled vastness between Whitecourt and Grande Prairie, as the new road will give Edmonton a short, direct link with the Alaska highway.

At present a poor road and a one line railway runs northeast one line railway runs northwest from Edmonton through Onoway, Cherhill, Sangudo, Mayerthorpe, and on to Whitecourt. But there it ends.

Behind it stands a vast chain of fertile valleys untouched by civilization.

But the new road will do more than open up Alberta's last frontier. It will bring a tremendous flood of business to the towns between Edmonton and Whitecourt, for this is the route over which most commerce will flow into the Peace River country, northeastern B.C., and Alaska.

Signs of an oil boom have also been seen in the Lac St. Anne district. Between Lisburn and Sangudo an oil company recently brought in a successful wildcat well, and it looks as if others are on the way.

The new road itself will stretch back from Whitecourt to Valleyview, where it joins the present road to Grande Prairie about 50 miles east of the center. The new road will be about 100 miles long, and will be about 100 miles shorter than the present route to Alaska.

The road will traverse the area where a crew of searchers are currently seeking five airmen whose plane may have crashed in the area three weeks ago.

LABOR RAPS JAIL SET-UP

Organized labor has attacked the provincial government over the administration of the province's jails.

Last week the Calgary Trades and Labor Council heard a report from George Perry, chairman of the resolutions committee of the group, which charged that prisoners in the Lethbridge jail recently staged a sit-down strike over poor food.

Mr. Perry said his informant was a unionist who had served a 25-day term for a traffic violation. He did not name him.

He said he had made a personal investigation which showed that Lethbridge jail inmates were improperly fed.

"This government of ours," he said, "does not see fit to hire even one trained cook to see to it that these men are properly fed."

In the ensuing discussion, one delegate said he had spent a year in the jail in his younger days and had never seen an egg during the whole time, despite the fact the jail operates a chicken farm.

"I wouldn't even tell delegates of some of the things that go on in jail," he declared. He charged that "decent people lose character, that nobody knows and nobody apparently cares very much about it."

The council unanimously passed a resolution supporting establishment of a board of prison directors, with labor representation. This is being referred to the executive of the Alberta Federation of Labor for submission to the provincial cabinet.

Technocrats Deny Plans To Disband Movement

A high officer of Technocracy Inc. has denied intentions of disbanding in Alberta or anywhere else on this continent, following the publication of an exclusive story in this newspaper dealing with the future of the Technocrats in Alberta.

The denial was made by Wilton Ivie, assistant secretary of Technocracy Inc., from the organization's Continental Headquarters in New York.

Article reported that the movement may disband in Alberta through lack of support.

While the Technocratic officer took no objection to the article's outline of Technocracy's program and principles, Mr. Ivie said the article contained several "erroneous statements."

The story, which outlined the history of Technocracy, stated that the organization was banned between 1940 and 1943 because it objected to Canada's participation in World War II on the grounds that the war was being fought mainly to prolong the system.

Ivie declared that Technocracy was not banned on these grounds, but because the organization advocated total conscription, and was banned due to an "agreement between the Liberal party and Quebec politics that conscription would not become an issue in Canada during the war."

However, in 1944 conscription became such a controversial issue in Canada that the Liberal party nearly lost its support in Quebec before the matter was settled.

Mr. Ivie said that "restrictions were lifted on Technocracy in Canada (because) the ban could not be sustained in the courts."

Investigations on the part of this newspaper failed to reveal any court action in Canada over the legality of Technocracy during the late war.

Mr. Ivie went on to say that the membership of Technocracy is larger now than during the depression, but that this does not matter, because "Technocracy is an idea whose time has come, and does not depend upon the mass conversion of followers."

The assistant secretary of Technocracy admitted that the organization is waiting, as the article stated.

Mr. Ivie said that "we are not attempting to force any social design upon you or anyone else. We are waiting in the full knowledge that, when you have finangled around with the price system until you can't make it work anymore, you will come howling to the Technocrats to save the social order."

"Technocrats can afford to wait, but can you?" Mr. Ivie added.

Youth for Christ Redeems Young Criminal

On the night of July 12, 1947, John Robertson and two other young fellows carried out the holdup of a liquor store outside an American city.

Everything went according to schedule until Robertson thought he saw the owner, T. W. Hightower, reach for a gun. Robertson pulled his own gun, fired and Hightower died almost instantly. Fourteen months later, Robertson walked into the office of District Attorney A. C. Winburn in Houston. He had a Bible under his arm and was accompanied by a Baptist minister. John gave to Winburn the details of that night of crime, taking all the blame and exonerating the other two young fellows who had been with him.

Why should he confess a crime which had baffled Houston police for 14 months? The answer is a simple one. Does Youth for Christ work? John Robertson says yes.

Birthday Party Held At Rowley

ROWLEY—A birthday party in honor of Larry McKee was held at his home on Oct. 30. Twelve guests were in attendance and all enjoyed the afternoon.

In July, 1948, John Robertson was stationed at the naval air base near San Diego, California. On a number of Saturday nights he had been invited by friendly GI's to attend a Youth for Christ Rally in town. He had looked at the invitations, read them, thrown them away and then moved on his way downtown to go to a movie or seek some other entertainment.

But one night he decided to go to the rally. A Texas lawyer gave the Gospel message that night and plainly opened the way of salvation. The cloud of sin on Robertson's conscience was a heavy one. Could Christ forgive even that?

The question was answered when John took Christ as Savior that night.

Soon after becoming a Christian he told Will Bruce, Director, San Diego Youth for Christ of his crime. Advised to go home and confess, he hitch-hiked the 1,000 miles back to Houston and contacted a Baptist preacher who went with him to confess to District Attorney Winburn.

When his trial came up, the jury deliberated 10 minutes and

Crochet Ranks As Popular Needlework Art

By PAULINE ROY

AT ONE TIME in its history crochet was limited to lace making. Today crochet has widened its scope to include dozens of fashion and household accessories. It is one of the most popular needlework arts and one of the most versatile.

Crochet is practical as well as beautiful because its interlocking threads are durable. Many crocheted pieces last a lifetime and longer. Crochet is inexpensive, for you can duplicate smart accessories for far less than you can buy them. Crochet is creative and relaxing and satisfying.

Fashion designers, having discovered the versatility of crochet, use it in many ways. You will see hats, for instance — bonnets, and berets, sailor and cloches — in crochet; handbags — pouches, cylinders and envelope styles; and crocheted gloves, too. There are trim-looking short gloves, casual styles for sports and casual wear and even lacy evening mitts.

There are exquisite blouses in fine Irish crochet which may be worn all the year through and, at the opposite extreme, heavy wool sweaters in closely worked stitches. Bathing suits and beach sandals will be seen in crocheted and crocheted stoles, from the sheerest evening styles to plaid wool patterns. All sorts of pretty trimming edges may be made with a variety of yarns to take the place of braids, machine-made lace and insertions.

In the household sector, there are dozens of articles of beauty and durability to make with cotton yarns and crochet hook — bedspreads, tablecloths, place mats and hot mats, curtains, doilies and scarfs, and rugs to name a few.

In Wool, colorful, warm afghans are a charming addition to any home. If you have always thought of crochet in terms of period furniture, it is because it is just beginning to make itself felt in modern decor. Crochet is versatile enough for modern patterns and textures. Crochet has even been turned to such glamourous items as necklaces, bracelets, earrings and brooches. Shown above is a fetching example of crochet jewelry . . . two different chokers and a bracelet. The crochet work in these is very simple and the narrow bands are decorated with tiny multi-colored bugle beads, gold and silver buttons or gay cotton pompons sewn onto them. If there's a teen-ager in your family who would like to learn how to crochet, she'll find this CROCHET JEWELRY fun-to-do and fun-to-wear. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Dept. of this paper if you would like to have instructions for this jewelry. Ask for Leaflet No. PC-4941.

News Makes the Movies In New Hollywood Release

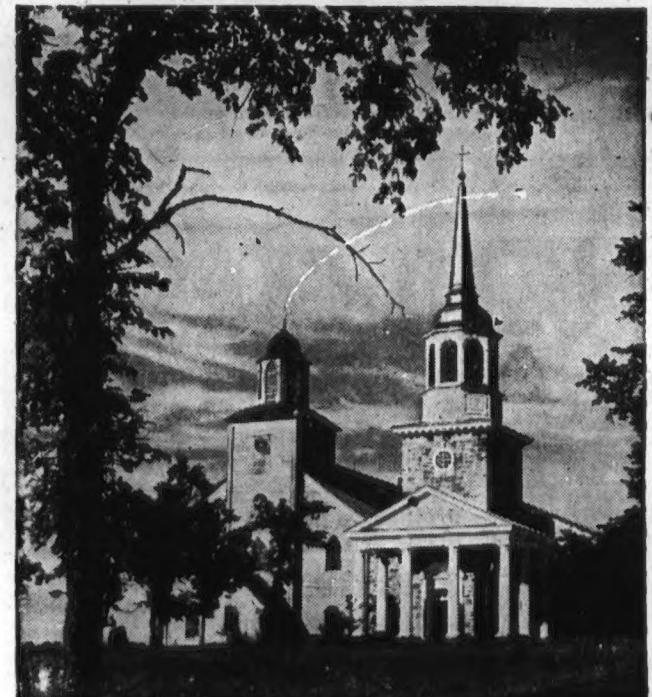

HOLLYWOOD—(Special)—News dispatches often make film stories, and this time it's the true-life drama of a much-publicized 'doctor' that's being used as the basis for a new movie.

Producer Bart McLane is bringing out a film entitled 'The Magnificent Quack,' and its leading character will portray, in a fictional style, the man who worked as a doctor without a license for several years in some big eastern U.S. hospital.

Charles K. Kettering, official, General Motors Corporation: "One of the things we have to be thankful for is that we don't get as much government as we pay for."

Munson WI Holds Regular Meeting

MUNSON — The regular monthly meeting of the Munson Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Thos. Sharp on Wednesday, Nov. 1.

Seventeen ladies were present. The business of the meeting consisted of sending Christmas parcels to the two elderly ladies in England, and the little boy in France. This has been done for a number of years, which is greatly appreciated. $10.00 was voted to be given to the Salvation Army.

Two members of the Girls' Club, Helen Howard and Norene Brown, each gave a very interesting paper on the work and activities of their club.

Mrs. Dean Sharpe had charge of the program for the afternoon and called on a guest speaker, Mrs. J. K. Adams of Drumheller, who gave a very interesting account of the origin of Hallowe'en and how it is celebrated in the different countries. She closed by reading some poems of her own composition, which was greatly enjoyed by all.

The November meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. H. L. McDermid.

The meeting closed with refreshments and social hour.

Morrin Family Leaves For U.K.

MORRIN — Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Quance and son, Danny, left on Saturday for a trip to Burham, Bucks, England. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Quance and family joined them at Three Hills and will accompany them to England.

Prior to their departure, Mrs. Charlie Quance was the guest of honor at a farewell tea held at the home of Mrs. C. R. Moritz, on Thursday afternoon. The table was nicely decorated with a three-foot ship, representing the liner Queen Elizabeth and carrying the flags of England and Canada. Presents for Mrs. Quance, brought by the guests, were placed on the ship. A delicious lunch was served to conclude the afternoon.

Fall Bride-Elect Feted At Beiseker

BEISEKER — Members of St. Mary's senior choir entertained Snuday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Val Schmaltz in honor of Miss Barbara Schmaltz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Schmaltz, whose marriage to Mr. Stanley Olsen will take place Nov. 6th.

The evening was enjoyably spent playing court whist with the honors going to Mr. Val Schmaltz and Miss Rose Marie Wald. Miss Rose Marie entertained the guests with selections on the piano whilst lunch was being served.

Mr. Val Schmaltz on behalf of the guests presented the bride-elect with three beautiful china cups and saucers.

CWL Bazaar Judged Successful

BEISEKER — At the regular meeting of the CWL reports showed that the fowl supper and bazaar was a splendid success.

The Welfare Committee convened by Mrs. Fred Meidinger and Mrs. Harry Simmonds are sending a parcel of clothes and Christmas treats to the Providence Creche again. All members are asked to help this worthy cause, because clothes are very badly needed for the little ones.

The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine committee in charge of Mrs. Frank Schmaltz and Mrs. Nick Velker Jr. are planning a Christmas concert and tree for the children.

Mrs. Pete Hagel's name was drawn in the pool, but due to her not being present the pool will be doubled for the next meeting.

The LIGHTER SIDE

Evidence to the Contrary

The boss of the shipping department was bustling along about his duties when he sighted plump George, one of his workers, gazing blankly out the window.

Irked, the boss confronted George and said: "Listen, fellow! Don't you know you'll never get anywhere by just standing around?"

"Oh, I don't know," George said. "Did you ever ride an escalator?"

What's the Use

A farmer had a son at college.

At the end of the first year the son came home in high feather. He stood second in his class.

"Second?" said his father. "Second! Why didn't you stand first? What do you think I'm sending you to college for?"

The young man returned for his second year determined to win first place. At the end of the year he returned home and announced his success to his father. The father looked at him for a few minutes in silence, then shrugged his shoulders, and said: "At the head of the class, you? Well it can't be much of a college after all."

The young man returned for his second year determined to win first place. At the end of the year he returned home and announced his success to his father.

"Whose place is that?" the traveller inquired.

"That," his guide casually rejoined, "is the poorhouse."

"The poorhouse!" exclaimed the astonished tourist. "You must have some mighty fancy paupers."

"We ain't got but one," the guide replied, "and she's an old woman. The overseers board her out with one of the neighbors, and let the poorhouse to some Boston swells for the summer. And that, sir, pays all her keep!"

LETTER TO LOUISA*Girl of 20 Writes*Of 'Chaperon Trouble'

DEAR LOUISA:—I have written to your column before and as you answered my problem so well the first time, well here's my problem this time—it's chaperones.

I have been keeping company with a man 11 years older than myself. I'm 20. I find this man's company very good. He is amusing, yet sober-minded enough, and he is a gentleman.

My parents haven't a thing against him, except, perhaps that he doesn't attend the Sunday services as faithfully as we do.

Mother even says she likes him and that age doesn't matter, unless, of course, the gap is too wide.

I think I love him and I'm sure he loves me. We intend to get married in a year or so.

Even after I've mentioned possible marriage with this man, mother still insists on us having my sister or brother with us when we go out. When he takes "us" back I'm expected to get back in the house along with the others. I like to linger a few minutes alone with him but mother thinks this is unreasonable. Is staying back those last few minutes so bad that I should be reproached for it?

I've never given my parents any reason to distrust us, although I understand her concern.

My boy friend knows about this and he can't help but feel that he's not welcome. When I know that he is.

I think that chaperones are o.k. for kids of 13 or 14 and "puppy love," but for a girl of 20?

I hope you will give me your opinion.

BLUE EYES.

Answer—I must agree with you that it is not unreasonable for you to want to linger with your boy friend for a few minutes while saying goodnight.

In my opinion, though, you are putting too much emphasis on the serious aspects of your relationship—love and marriage—and perhaps that is the reason for your mother's concern.

After all, a gap of 11 years is considerable, though if time shows that you truly love each other, that doesn't matter.

Meanwhile, I would advise you to consider him just your "boy friend." Perhaps if you show your mother that you are not impetuous, but sensible and level-headed as far as this matter is concerned, she too will take a more reasonable attitude.

LOUISA.

Effect of Frost on Germination
The following germination results are presented with the hope that they may help to answer the question so many prairie farmers are asking this fall. Will seed from frozen grain crops germinate satisfactorily?

Germination Results. Line Elevators Farm Service has completed germination tests on a large number of farmers' seed samples of wheat, oats and barley from many different districts of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. A summary of the results is given in the following table.

Crop	No. of Samples Tested	% of Damaged Samples by Frost	Percentage Germination of Frosted Samples	Average Range
Wheat	600	48	78	6 to 98
Oats	278	57	58	2 to 97
Barley	255	42	67	6 to 94

Of the 600 wheat samples we have tested so far this fall 320, or 48%, were visibly affected by frost. Many of the frosted wheat samples germinated vigorously, but in 19% of them the germination was below 75%. Moreover, several samples germinated less than 25%.

A high percentage of the seed samples of oats and barley tested from this year's crop, 57% and 42% respectively, were damaged by frost. Although many of the frosted samples of both oats and barley germinated strongly, as high as 95% in some cases, germination in 69% of the oat samples, and in 53% of the barley samples, was below the 75% level, with many of the frosted oat and barley samples germinating below 10%.

Conclusions. From the germination tests completed so far this fall it is clear that frost damage to seed germination cannot be determined by visible signs or effects. The obvious and clear fact is that no farmer can afford to take a chance on his frosted seed germinating satisfactorily. Every farmer can save himself considerable worry, and perhaps the necessity of buying new seed, by having his seed tested for germination.

Free Tests Available. Free germination tests are offered by Agents of the Line Elevator Companies listed above. Don't wait, get this important job done this fall. Be prepared to plant only clean, high-germinating seed in 1951.

RAP OVERHEAD WIRING

VICTORIA.—At their 42nd annual convention here, the Dominion Association of Fire Chiefs called upon all Canadian municipalities of 5,000 or more population to begin plans for gradually placing overhead wiring underground. Removal of overhead wires to back lanes was not a solution, the chiefs said. The unsightliness and hazard could be eliminated "only by placing these wires where they belong—underground."

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSONTrue Christians Practice Racial, Religious Tolerance

What should the Christian's attitude be toward peoples of other nations and other races?

This is a question of importance to individuals in localities where there is a mixture of races and is just as important to the people of one nationality in determining their fellowship with other nations, often composed of people of another race.

The ancient Jew certainly had his full share of racial pride and exclusiveness. He considered himself one of the chosen children of Jehovah, occupying a position of favor and privilege in the plans of deity, therefore, not to be contaminated by contact with a foreigner which included all those not descendants of Abraham.

This traditional attitude of the Jew, however, was occasionally softened by some of the great Jewish leaders, who were broad enough and liberal enough to realize that it was mainly prejudice. One of the earlier example was that of Solomon, praying at the dedication of the Temple, who petitioned that the prayers of the foreigner might be answered, as well as those of the faithful Jew, (I Kings 8:41-43).

The teachings and life of Jesus show how completely he rejected the narrow viewpoint of the Jewish tradition, refusing to limit the possibility of salvation to the Jew alone even going far enough to warn that outsiders might come in and take what had been offered the children of Abraham.

The great commission delivered to his followers, just before his ascension, embraced all mankind as the object to receive truth.

Time and again Jesus, by example and word, sought to broaden the love and sympathy of mankind, as he went among the exclusive Jews, as is especially shown by his attitude towards the Samaritans.

Between the Jews and Samaritans there existed a cordial hostility. The Assyrians carried into exile the leading inhabitants of the Northern Kingdom and colonized the country with members of their own race, who during the process of centuries were mingled with the Jewish remnant thus forming a cross between the two peoples. In religion they differed from the Jews, for although they accepted the Pentateuch, they had their own Temple and priesthood.

Yet, in his immortal parable, to illustrate the neighborhood of man, Jesus used the figure of a Samaritan as a benefactor, after a Jewish priest and Levite had successfully passed the stricken Jew, (Luke 10:20-37).

The early Christian followers faced the problem of deciding the extent of the new dispensation. Naturally, at first, those who followed Jesus were only Jews, but it was not long before the inevitable decision had to be made as to whether or not the new salvation was open to the Gentile as well.

During his ministry Paul waged unceasing battle with the conservative exclusive Jewish attitude, upholding the necessity of the new faith.

Standing upon the fatherhood of God, which carried with it the brotherhood of man. Paul refused to accept any limitation of the new faith, knowing neither Greek nor Barbarian, Jew nor Gentile, in the availability of the blessings offered by entrance and participation in the kingdom of God.

Power Company Launches New Alberta Project

Two coal mining companies, together with a power company, are writing a new chapter in the story of Alberta's industrial development.

Just a few months ago, two new coal mining companies, Forestburg Collieries, Limited, and the Alberta Coal Company, commenced preparation for large-scale strip-mining operations on their properties lying on either side of the Battle River, between Forestburg and Halkirk, southwest of Edmonton.

Electric energy is the ideal power source for the recovery of coal and Canadian Utilities, Limited, which has served this area for many years will spend about $335,000 for ample power for the mines at all times.

Production at the mines is scheduled for this Fall, to be gradually increased as their installations move towards completion, which is expected to be reached early next year. This year's expenditure of $205,000.00 to supply power by Canadian Utilities Limited, has been practically completed and early next year the job will be finished at an added cost of $150,000.00.

This will provide a lot of power but the need for it becomes evident in view of the huge machines to be operated. As an illustration of this, there is under consideration by one of these mines the possible installation of an electrically powered, eleven yard power shovel capable of taking coal from the seam in ten ton bites, five of these being enough to load a railway car to capacity.

This is a development new to Alberta and its progress will be followed with interest.

Beiseker Lions Stage Successful Hallowe'en Party

BEISEKER—Beiseker Lions club, under the guiding hand of Lorne Bunyan and his boys' and girls' committee staged another successful Hallowe'en party for the children of the district on Oct. 31. The Beiseker hall was most appropriately decorated for the occasion with witches and goblins and even a fire and cauldron boiling.

Action started at 6:30 p.m. and more than 225 children appeared like magic, all decked out in their gayest costumes. Apples were bobbed for, on strings and in tubs, and there were prizes for the best costumes.

Judging was done by Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Wright, Mr. Frank Wright and Mr. Tidy, and though their task was most difficult, they performed it well and presented the following with prizes:

Small girls' comic — Virginia Berreth, Margaret Schmaltz.

Small boys' comic — Harold Berreth, Wayne Berreth.

Small girls' original — Theresa Schmaltz, Marilyn Sepovich.

Small boys' original — Teddy Hagel, Andy Schmaltz.

Large girls' comic — Marilyn Silbernagel, Frances Bettin.

Large boys' comic — Jack Bettin, Louis Schmaltz.

Large girls' original — Geraldine Hagel, Rosemary Meldinger.

Large boys' original — Baltser Schmaltz, Harvey Silbernagel.

After the prizes were presented the children were treated to a free show and as they left, each was given a bag of treats. About 100 or more bags were sent to the Red Cross Crippled Children's hospital in Calgary, and everyone voted this the best party yet.

Later in the evening a masquerade dance was held for the older folks and about one-third of them showed up well dressed for the occasion. The music of Ted De-Waal's orchestra was enjoyed by all until the wee small hours and the best costumes of the evening were worn by Mrs. Carl Schmaltz as a lovely Arabian Princess, and Felix "Soup" Schmaltz as a Chinese Mandarin.

Much credit is due to Lion Lorne and his committee for a most enjoyable evening.

Birthday Party Held In Beiseker

The guests included: Frank A. Schwengler, Frank J. Schwengler, Marie Schwengler, Lena Schwengler, Lois VanHousen, Roy Berreth, Donald Haase, Shirley Haase, Baltser Schmaltz and Rose Schmaltz.

Schmaltz. These were most interesting as many of those present could see themselves on the screen and Louis is a very capable photographer.

A most enjoyable lunch was then enjoyed and Mr. Ken Wright, acting as chairman for the evening, called on several of the old-timers present for a few remarks. Mayor Schmaltz spoke on behalf of the village, and then Mrs. Lohrke and Mr. J. H. Schmaltz reminisced on the early days when Beiseker was young and recalled many amusing and heart-warming scenes from the early days.

Father Tennant spoke briefly, saying how fitting it was that we should honor Mr. and Mrs. Gibson for he well knew how they had carried many a load behind the scenes when it was most important—and seldom recognized.

Mr. Front Lount then very ably presented Mr. and Mrs. Gibson with a purse of money on behalf of those present and wished them the best from all of us in their new home.

For once in his life Harvey found difficulty in replying but he rose nobly to the occasion and thanked each and everyone present for their part in a most enjoyable evening. Laura also very capably expressed her thanks for the gift and the occasion, and invited each and all of us to visit her in her home — though, she added—not all at one time.

Much credit is due to Mrs. Lount and Mrs. Weisgerber who organized the party, and to all who assisted in making it a great success.

Beiseker Students Visit Calgary

BEISEKER—Monday, Oct. 30, the pupils of grades 7 and 8, taught by Mr. Lorne Bunyan were taken to Calgary by Mr. Chris Schmaltz, Mr. Baltser Silbernagel, Mr. Matt Schmaltz, and Father Tennant who kindly loaned their cars to provide ample room.

In the morning they visited Calgary's public library. Besides seeing all through this building they were shown how old books are re-covered and edges trimmed to look like new.

Lunch was provided at St. George's Island, and the zoo was visited for a short while.

The next part of the tour took them to the Aladdin Dry Cleaners where they were shown through the building and the process of dry cleaning.

They were then divided into two groups and one group visited the Premier Dry Cleaners while the other paid a visit to the Alberta Laundry. During this time, besides being shown through the building they were shown how a complete washing is done, and the ironing of a man's shirt which can be done very easily in one minute.

After this, some visited the Coste House, where they were shown the art gallery, model train, etc. Others went to a good show and all returned home boasting of a day well spent with many thanks going to Mr. Bunyan who planned the tour, and to the owners of the cars who supplied the transportation.
